

Wine Spectator

92

FERRERO

Brunello di Montalcino 2006

A polished Brunello, offering black cherry and blackberry flavors that mesh with the generous texture, ending with a spicy finish. Not a big red, and the serious tannins need time to integrate, so the wine should only become more elegant as it develops. Best from 2014 through 2026. 666 cases made. (Oct 31, 2011)

WineSpectator.com